at 1600 on Tuesday 07 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Isolated showers overnight before thundery showers develop on Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Many seeing clear skies, but cloud slowly moving in from the west will bring the chance of a few showers through the night over Devon and Cornwall. Feeling rather muggy during a warm and humid night. Minimum temperature 16 deg C (61 deg F).

Wednesday:
Mostly dry at first, with plenty of sunshine in the east. Showery rain developing in the west, and extending to more eastern parts later. Some heavy and thundery downpours. Cooler. Maximum temperature 25 deg C (77 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Scattered showers on Thursday, heavy at times and with a risk of thunder. Further showers on Friday. Many areas dry on Saturday but the odd isolated shower is still possible.
